SECTION—II

Answer any four of the following questions :

15×4=60

9. "Plot is the soul of tragedy"—says Aristotle. Do you agree? Discuss.
10. "Sublimity wins immortality for writers." Assess the enduring value of Longinus's theory on the nature and sources of the sublime.
11. "Poetry is accused of being a waste of time, a mother of lies, a nurse of abuse, and rightly banished by Plato." Elaborate on Sidney's defence against these imputations.

12. Discuss Johnson's remarks on the mixture of tragedy and comedy in Shakespeare. In what ways does his view reflect or challenge neoclassical taste?
13. Examine Coleridge's response to Wordsworth's assertion that there is no essential difference between prose and poetry. How does Coleridge redefine poetic language through his theory of meter?
14. Discuss the arguments put forward by Crites in favour of the Ancients.
15. In Book 3 of Plato's Republic Socrates's educational programme is not to appreciate art for its own sake, but to shape the souls of the guardians, ensuring they are mentally and physically prepared to protect the ideal State. Do you agree? Give a reasoned answer.
