

One Year Internship for B.Com Final Year Students of Don Bosco College

Students of B.Com Final Year selected for Internship with H.K. Agrawala and Co. Chartered Accountant Firm, Pan Bazaar, Guwahati.

The following B.Com final year students of Don Bosco College, Tura, have applied for and have been selected to attend one-year internship program on accounting and allied practices under the direction of Shri H.K. Agrawala, FCA. His Chartered Accountant firm will introduce the students to various accounting practices and provide internship whereby they will acquire employable skills. They will work under the supervision and guidance of Shri Agrawala and other competent auditors and supervisory persons as assigned by him. H.K. Agrawala and Co is a reputed firm with expertise and is able to train the students and also able to assist them in placement or further studies. The Firm is known to as the auditor and financial consult for most of the Don Bosco institutions of our Province. The internship plan is an effort, for the first time, to assist the students on completion of their B.Com final exams to acquire hands-on skills necessary to meet the requirements of getting good jobs. We are trying to address the gap between theory and practice, academic knowledge and practical experience of workplace needs. The program also intends to address the needs of many institutions to have competent and trained accountants. We are confident many of these students would find employment in the various Don Bosco and other institutions known to us.

This pioneering project is the result of several brainstorming sessions and a desire of the College management to help students of Commerce stream to hone their skills to be capable of meeting the work place requirements and the changing financial and banking rules. It is part of our effort to provide career guidance and support to accompany students to find their proper work place and career options.

The students will be given a monthly stipend of Rs. 5000/ of which each month Rs. 1000/ will be deducted and only Rs. Rs. 4000/ will be handed over. On completion of one year they will receive the remaining amount of Rs. 12000. Any student discontinuing the internship program in between will not be eligible for the amount of Rs. 1000/- deducted monthly and the total of Rs. 12,000/. The students who complete the entire program successfully will be given a certificate jointly issued by the Audit Firm and the Don Bosco College. This will help the students to get good jobs.
