Work Ethics

Don Bosco College is based on educational, charitable and moral ideals. It promotes studies, physical health and well-being, research, science, technology, religion, agriculture, horticulture, etc. It manages laboratories, libraries, reading rooms and hostels.

It arranges meetings, seminars, workshops, conferences, lectures and programmes relating to one or more of its objects and organize tours, excursions and visits. The college is unbiased in the fulfillment of any or all of the objects.

The College has become distinct in following work-ethics true to the objectives of its inception. Accordingly, it promotes learning, personality development and personal integrity of the teachers and the students. This is augmented by shared responsibilities between the management and the staff and to some extents students.

The college is guided by its motto "Pursuit of Excellence" which has generated the primary belief in the ability of its stakeholders and has become a shared belief to achieve excellence. The College strives to objectify its motto by exploring ways and means to achieve optimum level of class attendance and effort for learning and all round development of teachers and students. The College thrives on cordial and amicable relationship between the management, teachers and students.
